b. The Handicapped Program Advisory Committee met on 7 August to discuss and plan special activities in observance of National Employ the Handicapped Week (NETHW) 7 through 13 October 1979. It was decided that (1) the popular film, "A Different Approach," would be shown in eight Agency-occupied buildings; (2) our braille map of metropolitan Washington, D.C., would be mounted, framed and hung for "unveiling" that week; and (3) every attempt would be made to publish the first edition of the Handicapped Program newsletter that week. (U/AIUQ)

2. Hispanic Recruitment:

a. [REDACTED] recruiter, reports that his plans for a luncheon with Hispanic leaders in San Antonio on 29 August are proceeding very well. He reports that he had a most favorable reaction from Mr. Fernando Ramirez, the Area Manager for the Office of Personnel Management in San Antonio. [REDACTED] states that Mr. Ramirez commented that he wished other agencies were doing something. [redacted] 25X1A also stated that the reaction was so positive that he believes Mr. Ramirez might report this back to his Washington headquarters as an example of what one agency was doing to recruit Hispanics.

(Previously reported at 0800 meeting.) (U)
